

GOVERNOR REFUSES TO ORDER DISMISSAL OF DEPUTY WRIGHT

Following Home Rule Plan,
He Puts It Up to Mayor
Gaynor.

Gov. Sulzer, declaring his belief in the home rule of cities, has declined to take any action on the presentation of the John Doe Grand Jury, demanding the immediate dismissal of Deputy Commissioner of Correction William J. Wright as "an inefficient public servant." Instead, he has put the dismissal of Wright up to Mayor Gaynor.

The Grand Jury, on Dec. 17, demanded Wright's dismissal, sending copies of its presentment to Gov. Dix and Mayor Gaynor. No action was taken and last Friday the Grand Jury handed up a supplemental presentment, a copy of which was sent to Mayor Gaynor and Gov. Sulzer.

This answer was received from Gov. Sulzer to-day by Edward R. Carroll, Special Deputy County Clerk:

Gov. Sulzer directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your communication dated Jan. 24, 1913, enclosing a certified copy of presentment of the Grand Jury relating to the City Prison of New York, in the Borough of Manhattan, duly filed in your office on Jan. 24, 1913.

The Governor desires me to inform you that at present he regards this matter as one for attention and consideration by the local authorities of the City of New York, and that he should not take direct action in the matter until the local authorities have passed upon the same, and then only in case that it is absolutely necessary to take executive action through lawful means, in order to promote the general welfare of the citizens.

"Pursuant to the direction of Gov. Sulzer, the matter has this day been referred by this department to the Mayor of the City of New York, to the end that he may take such action in the matter as he may deem proper, for the best interests of the citizens."

"For your consideration, I enclose copy of the letter addressed to the Mayor."

Very respectfully,
VALENTINE TAYLOR,
Counsel to the Governor.

Following is the copy of Gov. Sulzer's letter to Mayor Gaynor:

By direction of Gov. Sulzer, I herewith enclose a copy of a letter, dated Jan. 24, 1913, addressed to the Governor, received from Edward R. Carroll, Special Deputy County Clerk, together with a copy of a presentment by the Grand Jury now sitting at the Extraordinary Term of the Supreme Court, presided over by Hon. John W. Goff, relating to the City Prison of the City of New York, in the Borough of Manhattan.

This matter is referred to you by direction of the Governor, with the suggestion that you give the same your careful consideration and take such action in the premises as you may deem best to promote the interests of the citizens and of the State.

Concerning this matter, this department this day wrote a letter to Mr. Carroll, a copy of which letter is herewith inclosed for your consideration. Very respectfully,
VALENTINE TAYLOR,
Counsel to the Governor.

RENO DIVORCE WORTHLESS HERE, COURT DECIDES.

Dentist Jennings Has Married Again, and Ruling of Justice Mills
Amazes Him.

WHITE PLAINS, Jan. 28.—Supreme Court Justice Mills yesterday granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Mrs. Mary Jennings in her suit against Dr. James G. Jennings, a well known dentist of Portchester. Justice Mills held that a Reno divorce was not good in this State, and as Jennings had married after obtaining a divorce in Nevada he was guilty of bigamy.

Mrs. Jennings was married to Jennings in St. Louis, Mo., at No. 157 Alexander Avenue, the Bronx, on Dec. 16, 1909. She said she worked at her trade as a milliner to support herself and her husband when he was studying dentistry. Four years ago they separated, she testified, after many quarrels. On Sept. 27, 1911, Jennings married Miss Kathryn Kirshin of No. 37 Marston place, Portchester. In the meantime he had obtained a decree of divorce in Reno. In defending his wife's suit, the dentist exhibited this decree and was astonished to learn the paper was worthless in this State.

Warner's Safe Remedies

many do not know they suffer from it until it has taken firm hold, and it is best to take no chances.

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has proved so effective during the past 35 years in checking the insidious advances of kidney diseases that there is no good reason why anyone suffering from even slight kidney trouble should take any chances. Begin taking this remedy to-day, at once.

It may save you from very serious consequences.

"Cannot Praise It Too Highly"

"I was advised to give Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy a trial. I found it so effective that in two months I was a well man. I cannot praise it too highly for the people who suffer from kidney and liver trouble."—C. F. Figg, Syracuse, N. Y.

Draft Stock Exchange Bills Along the Ideas of Gov. Sulzer

ALBANY, Jan. 28.—The message of Gov. Sulzer in reference to Stock Exchange reform has already borne fruit. Three bills were prepared to-day and will be introduced into the Legislature to-night. Other measures are in course of preparation. The features of the proposed acts are:

1. To compel the incorporation of the Stock and other Exchanges, if no better way to bring them under the supervision of the State can be devised.

2. To prohibit "short selling," "wash sales," "pyramiding" and the rehypothecation of stocks bought for a customer.

3. The repeal of the section of the Usury law exempting Stock Exchange transactions from the prohibition against rates of interest in excess of 6 per cent.

4. Imposing a tax of 2 per cent. or more upon the value of seats owned by members of the Stock Exchange.

5. The passage of a law compelling members of Exchanges to take out licenses at a fixed rate if a tax is not imposed.

6. A modification of the Kansas "Blue Sky" law that will require publicity as to resources behind stocks offered for sale in this State.

CITY MAGISTRATE HARRIS DIES OF A HEART ATTACK.

He Is Stricken in Theatre and Expires Soon After Reaching His Brooklyn Home.

City Magistrate Moses J. Harris died at his home, No. 54 Third street, Brooklyn, late yesterday afternoon, after having been stricken by a sudden attack of heart disease in a vaudeville theatre earlier in the day. His death was not announced until early to-day.

In the midst of the vaudeville programme Harris was seized by violent heart pains. He hurriedly left the theatre and boarded a Seventh avenue car to his home. He got off the car at Third street and went into a drug store to get relief from the pains which gripped him. After the clerk had given him a stimulant he managed, with his wife's assistance, to walk to his home, a few doors away, and Dr. Pollock was summoned. Harris died a few minutes after the physician reached his side.

The deceased Magistrate was born in Brooklyn, fifty-three years ago, was graduated from the New York Law School and practiced law in Brooklyn until he was appointed to the City Court bench by Mayor Gaynor two years ago. He leaves, besides a widow, two grown sons.

The funeral will be held from the Hebrew Temple, at Eighth avenue and Garfield place, Thursday afternoon.

LOCKED HER IN THE STORE.

The porter in J. H. Dugleman's millinery store at One Hundred and Seventeenth street and Third avenue at 6 o'clock last night, put out the lights, except those in the two big show windows, locked the front doors and went home.

A few minutes later a young woman appeared in the show window. A crowd gathered and began jeering at her. Patrolman Nikola of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station came along. She made signs to him that she was locked in. The patrolman was joined by Sgt. Helmer and they tried to get into the store by the roof and rear, but failed. Then they telephoned to Mr. Deg-man, who lives at One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street and Riverside Drive. He arrived at the store at 8 o'clock and released Mrs. Lillian Setz, a saleswoman. When the store was closed she was in the cloak room.

ECZEMA BROKE OUT IN A RASH

Lost Most of Hair. Itched So Could Not Stand It. Top and Back of Head One Mass of Blood and Sores. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Three Weeks.

236 Weaver St., Rochester, N. Y.—"My trouble began by scratching my head with a hairpin which poisoned the skin, then eczema started. It broke out in a rash and I lost most of my hair. It itched me so I could not stand it. I thought I would go crazy. I kept on scratching till the whole top and back of my head was one mass of blood and sores. I had very little sleep."

"I tried all kinds of salves and other things, but they did me no good. I could not comb out the back of my hair for nearly two months and was about to cut it off when the druggist advised me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. Each night before going to bed I would rub in the Cuticura Ointment and I washed my head once a week with the Cuticura Soap. I used the Soap and Ointment for three weeks and now I am completely cured." (Signed) Miss Emma Nelson, Mar. 25, 1913.

NIECE'S MCKINLEY RELIC FOR SALE IN A WINDOW.

Singer Disposed of Knights Templar Gold Plate, Bearing Diamond, to a Broadway Dealer.

Morris A. Forgoiston, at Fortieth street and Broadway, displayed yesterday in one of his shop windows a 16-carat gold and sard plate bearing an engraved invitation to President McKinley, addressed as "Dear Sir and Friend," to attend a stated assembly of California Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, to be held in San Francisco, May 15, 1901. H. Frank Tiltus, Commander, and Hiram T. Graves, Recorder, signed the invitation. Set in the top of the plate in blue enamel is the emblem of the order, with a blue-white diamond of about one carat in the center. A neat leather case accompanies the card.

At a dinner tendered to Coroner Shon got by the Progressive at Fleischman's, Prospect and Westchester avenues, Bronx, last night, Comptroller Prendergast was proposed as the next Mayor. The suggestion was cheered.

Mr. Forgoiston said last night he had bought the plate last May from Mrs. Mabel McKinley Baer, niece of President McKinley and a singer, who informed him that it had come to her in the distribution of her uncle's effects. Forgoiston said that lodges and individuals had made several bids for the plate, but none was sufficient to tempt him to sell. The plate seems to have an intrinsic value not exceeding $200. Forgoiston hopes some one will give him $500 for it.

Room for Prendergast.
